

Old Hill Detachment Cadets receive notebooks

SI Sztolc presenting Corporal Taylor with his notebook

Old Hill Detachment were overjoyed to receive two notebooks donated by the Friends of the ACF to assist with the Cadets online study.

These were presented to Corporal Taylor and Cadet Hall by SI Sztolc in the presence of Major Lewis OC A Company and 2Lt. Healy Detachment Commander.

2Lt. Healy sent his thanks and gratitude to the Friends of the ACF saying that “with their generous donation the Cadets would now be able to join in online training and would also be able to use the notebooks in conjunction with their schoolwork...A win, win all round”

Major Lewis used his visit to introduce himself to the Cadets and even took the time to join in with a football kickabout at NAAFI break.

Corporal Taylor on presentation of his notebook immediately asked “Can I use this to learn the Army Cadet Syllabus?”, the answer was an emphatic YES!!!

Many thanks to the Friends of the ACF and Major Lewis from everyone at Old Hill Detachment.
